FOUNDRESS

MOTHER TERESA of St. Rose of Lima (1858-1902)

Mother Teresa was born on 29 January 1858 at Chennai, to devote catholic parents and was christened Mary Grace. She lost her mother at a young age, but her father gave her all the love, support and excellent education that fitted her for her future apostolate. When 18, she was invited to Aleppey in Kerala to teach in a school run by the Carmelite priests. The school was not in a proper condition when she took over, but she quickly turned it into a success story. During this period, Mary Grace became a Carmelite sister herself and in 1884 she was professed and given the name Sr. Teresa of St. Rose of Lima. Sr. Teresa later became a teacher at St. Joseph's Convent at Aleppey and started living a religious life according to the regulations of the sisters of the Third Order of our lady of Mt. Carmel. In 1887 she was given a higher responsibility and asked to go to Ernakulam to educate and care for the oppressed people there. It was at Ernakulam that Sr. Teresa founded the Congregation of Carmelite sisters of St. Teresa on April 24, 1887. During this period, she responded in a prophetic way to the demands of the gospel and the church and led the marginalized sections of society to experience human dignity and secure their rightful place by building "a civilization of love". Soon, she became a 'mother' to the poor and the outcast. Mother Teresa and her congregation became the pride of the neighbourhood with its service for the sick, the dying, unwed mothers and orphans, and its free soup kitchen for the famine-hit public. In just 15 years, Mother Teresa placed the congregation on a strong foundation, braving all the challenges. Mother Teresa's dynamic and missionary life came to a tragic end on September 12, 1902 when the train in which she was travelling fell into a river in Andhra Pradesh, following a sudden and violent storm burst. Though deeply hit by her sudden departure, the congregation continued its life of prayer, apostolic work and public service under her inspiration and gradually grew into a widely respected institution. Today the congregation works in more than 120 communities worldwide in schools, colleges, technical schools, social work and social action centres, hospitals, hospices, homes for the aged and the sick, orphanages and prisons, centres for the development of women, men and children and the like.
