ROUGH REVEALS... (TREASURE HUNT)

RULES

- All teams must have at least two members.
- Teams must remain together throughout the Treasure Hunt and are encouraged to work together to answer the riddles and get the coins from each site.
- There are no refunds for entry costs.
- At the start of the treasure hunt, each team will be issued a "Clue Booklet". The pamphlet will contain all of the treasure hunt clues. It is up to the teams to decode the clues and carefully retrieve the coin from each place. Each solved clue will lead you to a location where you can acquire a "Treasure Hunt Coin." Whether or whether all clues are solved and coins are recovered, teams must return to the Exploration Area within the time limit to be eligible for awards.
- Teams will be graded based on the overall value of the coins collected as well as the amount of time it takes. Once all coins have been gathered, teams must return to the finish line to be considered done. The difficulty of the clue will decide coin values.
- A number is issued to each team in the quest. On the day of the hunt, you will be given a piece of paper with this number on it when you sign in. Tape this paper to one of the team's members' shirts, with the number facing out.
- Decision of the judges will be final and binding
- Any of the following will result in disqualification:
